

After the apostles had received the Holy Ghost, they went forth to all lands to preach the Gospel.